Faculty Advisor:

2015 – 2016: Truman Scholarship: During winter quarter, I worked closely with Seattle University's three 2015 Truman nominees and wrote detailed letters of recommendation for each one. One of our 2015 nominees was selected as a Truman Scholar. During the fall, I recruited candidates for 2015, reviewed applications from internal candidates, and worked with a committee to nominate four students to represent Seattle University. I also began mentoring these students on their applications.

2014: Truman Scholarship: During winter quarter, I worked closely with Seattle University's two 2014 Truman nominees and wrote detailed letters of recommendation for each one. During the fall, I recruited candidates for 2015, reviewed applications from internal candidates, and worked with a committee to nominate three students to represent Seattle University. I also began mentoring these students on their applications.

2013: Truman Scholarship: During winter quarter, I worked closely with Seattle University's three 2013 Truman nominees and I wrote detailed letters of recommendation for each one. I also arranged and participated in a series of mock interviews with our finalist. During the fall, I recruited candidates for 2014, reviewed applications from internal candidates, and worked with a committee to nominate three students to represent Seattle University. I also began mentoring these students.

2011: Truman Scholarship: During winter quarter, I worked closely with Seattle University's two 2011 Truman nominees and I wrote a detailed letter of recommendation for each one. During the spring, summer, and fall, I recruited candidates for 2012. During the fall, I also reviewed applications from internal candidates and worked with a committee to nominate one student to represent Seattle University. I also began mentoring the student on his application.
