

Vincent Walker

Professor of Finance

Seattle University

walkervincen@seattleu.edu

714-316-8184

Expertise

Personal Financial Planning and Asset Management

Executive Leadership in Finance and Information Systems

Consulting and Business Development

Experience

Seattle University, Adjunct Professor of Finance: 2018 - Current

- Instructor for Personal Financial Planning at Graduate and Undergraduate levels

UW Center for Entrepreneurship, Student Advisor and Consultant: 2017 to Current

- Advise Undergraduate Student Teams Consulting with Small Businesses

Sound Retirement Advisors, LLC, Owner and Manager: 2011-2016

- Certified Financial Planner (CFP) and registered investment advisor
- Boutique firm providing Financial Planning and Asset Management

The Boeing Company

Sr Director, Corporate Estimating: 2007

- Lead all Commercial and Military Estimating; Risk Analysis on Major Programs

Sr. Director of Finance and Information Systems, Global Partners: 2003-2006

- Finance, Contracts and Information Systems Leader for $25B Supply Chain
- Managed Foreign Subsidiaries and Conducted In-country Quarterly Reviews

Director of Finance, Commercial Airplanes: 1999-2002

- Finance Lead of 747 Program; Helped launch 747-800
- CFO of Fabrication Division, Implemented ERP and Lean Manufacturing

Controller-Commercial Airplanes Long Beach: 1997-1998

- Consolidated Planning, Revenue and P&L Accounting Functions

Education

Haas School of Business, Executive Development, 2007

Foster Business School, MBA Finance, 1980

Yale University, Bachelor of Arts, American History, 1974

Washington Manufacturing Services

Board Chairman:2004-2007

- Non-profit Focused on Growth of Small/Medium Businesses in Washington State