COURSE DESCRIPTION AND OBJECTIVES

Welcome to MARKETING 3500, Principles of Marketing. This is an entirely online course.

COURSE OVERVIEW

Introduction to Marketing is an introductory course in marketing for students who have not had a previous course or extensive marketing practical experience. The course has several objectives, in addition to introducing the basic terms and concepts of the field. It will also provide opportunities to apply the marketing concept to business strategy and to develop a strategic marketing plan within an integrated business framework. The course will include a section on personal branding for career success.

The course will include instructor lectures written and shared online, class discussions, case analyses, videos, and exercises. You can best broaden your knowledge by actively participating with questions, ideas, interpretations, and comments.

You can expect many assignments and class exercises in this course. During this course, you will be submitting papers and working collaboratively.

You will also create a written strategic marketing plan for a real business.

LEARNING OUTCOMES

It is expected that upon completion of this course, you will be able to:

1. Define marketing and outline the steps in the marketing process.
2. Explain the importance of understanding customers and the marketplace, and identify the five core marketplace concepts.
3. Identify the key elements of a customer-driven marketing strategy and discuss the marketing management orientations that guide marketing strategy.
4. Analyze qualitative and quantitative consumer data for use in determining appropriate marketing techniques that align with an organization's strategic focus, culture, and current business processes.
5. Recommend product, price, promotional, and distribution strategies for a pre-defined target market through organizational marketing plans.
6. Maximize internal and external opportunities through the integration of marketing concepts, theories, and models.
7. Develop effective marketing strategies that address commercial, legal, and cultural aspects in global business environments.
8. Analyze marketing practices for compliance with legal systems, regulatory standards and ethical practices.

WEEKLY ASSIGNMENTS

The course is designed to run each week from Monday through Friday giving you Saturdays and Sundays off.

You can expect reading assignments, collaborative discussion work, and weekly papers (see below--Marketing Project); there will also be two concept quizzes, and a final written marketing plan.

DISCUSSIONS:

Your active participation in the discussion forums is essential to your overall success in this class. Discussion questions are designed to help you make meaningful connections between the course content and the larger concepts and goals of the course. These discussions offer you the opportunity to express your own thoughts, ask questions for clarification, and gain insight from your classmates' responses and instructor's guidance.

Requirements for Discussion Board Assignments

You are required to submit one (1) initial post and follow up with at least two (2) response posts for each discussion board assignment.

You are expected to participate in the discussion area of class a minimum of two (2) a week.

For your initial post, you must do the following:

Compose a post with a minimum of two well thought out paragraphs that respond to all aspects of the weekly question.

Complete the initial post by Tuesday at 11:00 p.m. Pacific Time of the module week.

Take into consideration material such as course content and other discussion boards from the current module and previous modules, when appropriate.

Include thoughtful research references to support your discussion points, using APA style. These may come from the textbook or from independent research. Relevant and interesting graphics, Infographics, and videos are also encouraged. While not required, it can be valuable for the class to include scholarly or peer-reviewed sources to support your discussion points.

For your response posts, you must do the following:

Reply to at least two different classmates and/or your course professor and a classmate.

Please remember to respond to your course professor's questions.

Complete one response post no later than Wednesday at 11pm Pacific Time.

Complete the second response post no later than Thursday at 11pm Pacific time.

Follow-up posts are expected to be a minimum of two well thought out paragraphs.

Reference sources to support your discussion points, as appropriate (using proper citation methods for your discipline). These may come from the textbook or from independent research. Relevant and interesting graphics, Infographics, and videos are also encouraged.

Well thought out means: Organized relevant content, clarifies explanations, draws insightful conclusions that are thoroughly defended with evidence and examples and are clearly stated. It does not mean: "Hey Jim, nice post. I liked the part about....." etc. I count on you for critical thinking and analysis.

Discussion work is expected to be collaborative, not posting for points; for this reason, late discussion posts receive an automatic 50% deduction if they are submitted within 24 hours. After 24-hours late, no points.

MARKETING PROJECT

In the first week of the course you will be asked to select a local/regional business as your course project. Think of a business you like and would like to help with a marketing plan. During the course you will create a marketing plan for this business. Each week you will have an assignment that correlates to one part of a strategic marketing plan. For example, in one week you will be asked to develop a SWOT (Business Strengths, Weaknesses, Opportunities and Threats Analysis), in another week you will be asked to identify the customers targets for your business, in another week you will be asked to create a promotion plan, etc.

The business you select should be a small (local) to medium (local/regional only) size business you are familiar with and one that you can make a difference with. (You don't want to select a national chain such as Petco, Home Depot, Google, Amazon, etc.). It might be a nonprofit in your community that needs marketing help, or a small struggling business you want to see succeed, perhaps a faith-based organization, etc. Please email me an email barnesjw@seattleu.edu during the first few days of class to approve your business before proceeding. Explain the business, size, why you selected the business, etc.

Your final plan will be delivered in two forms:

1. PowerPoint presentation shared with the class in the week 8 class discussion area.
2. Executive Summary paper submitted as your week 8 paper.

REQUIRED MATERIAL

Principles of Marketing, Armstrong/Kotler, Marketing: An Introduction. (15th edition) ISBN-10: 0133084043. Available through Seattle University Bookstore, Amazon, etc. I am not using the latest edition. This might save you some money.

Note: If you have a different edition, remember it may be similar but not exact. When you see reading assignments in the course, please make sure you select the Chapter Topic description, as some chapter numbers are not exactly the same in both editions.

LATE WORK POLICY

- Discussion work is expected to be collaborative, not posting for points; for this reason, late discussion posts receive an automatic 50% deduction if they are submitted within 24 hours. After 24-hours late, no points.
- Weekly Papers: 20% late per 24 hour period or fraction thereof.
- Quizzes will be locked after the due date.
- Final Written Marketing Plan and Presentation: 10% late per hour.
- All dues/times are Pacific Time Zone.

SPECIAL NOTE ON DISCUSSION DUE DATES:

Please do not submit any class discussion work until the start of the module week. You can read ahead and prepare a main post in advance, but please do not submit it until we begin the week.

As you have read in the syllabus, first posts for all discussions are due no later than Tuesday nights. Canvas does not let me set two due dates/times, so here is what you may see.

Canvas will show you the due date/time for all discussions is Tuesday, however, please remember, most discussions follow-ups are not due until Thursday.

WORKING AHEAD

- You may read ahead but no work may be submitted online prior to the start of a module week.

WRITING EXPECTATIONS

To achieve the maximum number of points, please follow these expectations:

1. Answer all assignment questions in a detailed and detailed way. (A few sentences does not make a “paper”).
2. Cite your sources using APA style (in-text and end of paper) and make it clear to the reader what is your writing, and what is the writing of a source.
3. Use correct grammar, spelling, capitalization, and punctuation.
4. On all assignments you submit include: Your name, date, assignment, and class.
5. ALL work must be submitted as a Microsoft Word document or saved as an RTF document. Please do not submit a PDF.

COURSE EXPECTATIONS AND RESPONSIBILITIES

Academic Honesty:

Academic integrity is expected in this class. Academic integrity means that you are expected to approach all assignments within the letter and the spirit of the class rules and the Seattle University Academic Integrity Policy.

These rules exist to maximize the learning experience for all students, preserve the integrity of the class, and to help you practice the high level of integrity expected from business professionals. If you have any doubt about whether anything related to this class meets the standards of integrity, you are expected to disclose the particulars of the situation fully to me.

Academic dishonesty, as defined by university policy, will not be tolerated in any form. If you observe instances of dishonesty, please report them to me immediately. University procedures will be used to investigate reported instances of dishonesty. Seattle University is committed to the principle that academic honesty and integrity are important values in the educational process. Academic dishonesty in any form is a serious offense against the academic community. Acts of academic dishonesty will be addressed according to the Seattle University Academic Honesty Policy. The policy can be found at: <http://www.seattleu.edu/regis/Policies/> If you are not sure whether a particular action is acceptable according to the Academic Honesty Policy, you should check with your instructor before engaging in it.

Attendance

This is a fun and engaging course, but you will need to be disciplined in planning your week ahead for reading, discussion posts and papers.

Your participation and attendance is important in this class starting on the first day of week one. Please note that no late discussion work is accepted so please plan ahead. In my previous industry work world, and even now, I need to work well ahead of deadlines knowing there might be a challenge with electricity, Internet service, etc.

If you encounter problems with Canvas, I count on you to contact the SU Help Desk immediately or Canvas support 24-hour chat to resolve the issue. If you have a computer problem, I count on you to find a computer you can use from a friend, a library, etc.

Common Questions

Q: I'm going on vacation, can I submit my discussion work early?

A: No. Discussion work is meant to be collaborative, not posting for points.

Q: I couldn't post because I lost power, no Internet, Canvas wasn't working, a space alien came down and snatched my work, etc.

A: As a future business leader I count on you to plan ahead and meet deadlines.
